

EVERYTHING TO DO WITH SEX 2007

Part 1

© Ben Winston

If there is one weekend a year I look always look forward to, it's around the third week in October... Of course, this year my "weekend" actually began on a Thursday and there would be no rest or relaxation for me over these four fun-filled days... just sex, sex and more sex (Sound good?) During the weekend of October 19 to 21, the Automotive building at Exhibition place was the venue for the most anticipated event this city annually hosts. "The Everything to do with Sex Show" was back in town and it seemed the entire city was determine to find out what's new and exciting in the world of S-E-X!

As I was saying, my weekend actually began on Thursday October 18th with a phone call placed to the show's main organizers, Allan and Mikey on Wednesday... All I intended to do was make sure they knew I would be attending all three days of the event and if I would be able to pick up my media pass at the show... The next thing I know, Mikey is on the other end of the phone telling me that I gotta come out to the media party at Club Wicked (www.WickedClub.com) on Thursday night. He informs me that he is putting my name on the list and that all the stars of the show would be there. Also, I'd be able to get some great photos and content for this very article. Hmm... Would I need a date for an event of this magnitude? Probably not, but it would look great if I brought a hot little number with me... My next phone call was to MAX Magazine's August 2006 cover girl, Bella... a scorching hot little blonde who nearly jumped through the phone to ravage me when I invited her to attend this gala event. I now had my invite, my camera and my MAX girl... Let the games begin!

I picked Bella up at about 8pm and my jaw hit the floor at the sight of her... She was dressed to the nines in a very elegant (and very low cut) black dress which hugged her petite little frame like a thin coat of paint covers a firm, solid wall! (I just made a home improvement activity sound sexy!) She greeted me with a hug and quickly spun around to show me her outfit from all angles... I'm pretty sure that's when I passed out and when I was able regain my composure and stand up again comfortably, we were off to the party (Ok, I might have embellished my "passing out" at the sight of her, but she did make me drool a bit!)

We arrived at Club Wicked at about 9pm, just as people were starting to arrive. Bella was in her element as I introduced her to some of the people I knew. Everyone thought she was an absolute doll as she started collecting business cards like a twelve year old collects baseball cards! I turned around towards the entrance to find two familiar booties... Um, I mean, faces looking my way. Two of my favorite "Got Ass" (www.GotAss.ca) girls, Christina and Jenna, had arrived. Both decked out in their black and white "Got Ass" bootie shorts and belly tops, these two visions of loveliness who I hadn't seen in months ran up to me with hugs and kisses. They were looking as beautiful as ever and no sooner had I asked if Got Ass's owner, Carlos, was going to be there, in he walked to partake in the night's festivities.

I continued my mingling over the next few hours... losing sight of Bella a few times, but managed to introduce myself to stunning porn starlet, Nikki Benz and Keith, the vice president of the company whose product she endorses called "The Screaming O" vibrating cock ring (www.TheScreamingO.com). You might have seen the full page spread on Nikki Benz (www.NikkiBenz.com) in the last issue of MAX (and if you didn't, you'd better start reading us EVERY month!) Let me tell you, if you thought she was stunningly hot gracing our page, you should have seen her up close in person... I think I received third degree burns posing for a picture with her!

The next hottie to arrive with her entourage was another local porn Queen, Maxine X (www.MaxineX.com) and her husband Scott. Maxine is going to be the feature on season three of the Showcase mega-hit TV show, Webdreams, premiering next August. Webdreams is a sort of an adult industry reality show which focuses on a few different people trying to make it big in their respective fields. I've known Maxine X for a while now and they couldn't have chosen a sweeter, more talented woman to focus their attention on. Her entire camera crew and I go way back as well and with any luck, you might just see yours truly making brief appearances on the show next year... Thanks to cameraman, Josh, and sound guy Chris who always seem to be there whenever I'm chatting with (or trying to cop a feel of) Maxine. I'm starting to feel as if "Big Brother" is ALWAYS watching me... but as long as I can avoid the lightning, it's all good!

Another personal (and famous) friend of mine was next to arrive. Uncle D, the Canadian Ass Man (www.TouchYourToes.com) and main feature of Webdreams 2.0 (season two) managed to sneak into the party virtually unnoticed... That is, until I snapped a surprise picture of him. This is one recognizable dude and when Bella asked to be thrown over his shoulder in typical "Uncle D" fashion, he was more than willing to oblige her... The flashbulbs were going off a mile a minute as little Bella, her ass resting comfortably next to Uncle D's face, looked back with a smile at all the shutterbugs wanting to capture this moment forever. This event started a chain reaction of Uncle D admirers approaching and granting him their praise for the work he does... and guess what readers...? I was actually able to conduct a very informative interview with Canada's premier ass connoisseur during one of his photo shoots. Watch for it in next month's issue!

As the night went on, I was able to mingle with many party goers, some of whom were old acquaintances I usually see on a yearly basis at the show, and some were people I see regularly in my travels with MAX Mag. The media party was a fantastic time for all who attended and I was very happy that Mikey demanded I attend. At the end of a very long night, I managed to break myself away from about seven simultaneous conversations going on at once and peel Bella away from a slew of snap-happy photographers. As we headed for home, I looked over at Bella going through a pile of business cards in her lap with a smile ear to ear. She had a great night and couldn't remember ever being so popular. It was kinda overwhelming for her. I was happy she had a good time and then reality sunk in for me as to how long this weekend was going to be. I knew I'd better get enough sleep that night, because I had a feeling I wouldn't be getting much (sleep) over the weekend. One day down... Three to go!

Friday had arrived... Day one of the Everything to do with Sex Show. The doors opened to the public at 3pm and I was there at 2:50pm sharp! I headed over to the MAX Magazine booth (conveniently placed right next to the bar!), took out my camera and prepared to capture the show in all its glory. The MAX brass were still setting up as our booth was being shared with the fine folks from the Fantasy Dungeon (www.Fantasy-Dungeons.com) who put on some spectacular spanking displays for all the mesmerized onlookers. Freaky Steve knows how to play a couple of female asses like bongo drums and if you listened to the spankings carefully, you could faintly hear the opening drum solo of the song "Wipe Out" coming from atop both cutie's booties (Surfaris... Eat your hearts out!)

So I took to the floor, camera around my neck (something that would happen with regularity throughout the weekend) and headed over to my first call of duty... WANK PUNTER! To those who don't know what "Wank Punter" (www.WankPunter.com) is, they are an adult industry rock band comprised of five extremely talented musicians who sing, well, x-rated music! I've been covering their concerts over the last few months (even went to Montreal with them in the summer!) and they were now setting up their stage for two live performances at the Sex Show. The official rock band of Playboy TV, Wank Punter is really going places and with any luck, I'll be going with them! They have a slew of performances coming up and take it from a guy who has listened to their stuff so often, I can sing right along to every song... You're gonna wanna see them play live! Not only does the music rock, and their funky costumes add a little spark to their personalities... but they also bring beautiful dancing girls with them called "Fluffettes" to every performance... and guess what...? By the end of the performance, they all end up TOPLESS! (The Fluffettes, not the band) I arrived as they were preparing to perform their first concert and positioned myself front and center... just in time to take 500 pictures of a stellar performance that left the crowd craving more. And more they would get... the very next night.

I had to cut my Friday stay at the show short because of another rock concert I was to attend. The group, "Revolver" (www.RevolverTV.com) were performing close by at the Reverb club and I was asked by their Base player and Uncle D if I would take photos of the band... Revolver is an awesome band who was the opening act for Def Leppard last summer, so it was an invitation I couldn't turn down... even though there were still three hours of sex show to go that night. Canadian Ass Man, Uncle D, and a couple of his girls were emceeing the concert and believe me, I knew I'd make up for the three lost hours over the rest of the weekend, so I packed up my stuff and headed out of the building... trying not to be seen by anyone for fear of being stopped by someone else I knew. Me being me, I would have stayed and chatted, probably making me miss the Revolver concert all together. I escaped unscathed, got to the concert with plenty of time to spare, hooked up with Uncle D, photographed the band and headed for home at 3am... ready to do it all again the next day. I was beat but having a stellar time! Two days down... Two to go!
